(413) 442-8316

NEW!

BOUSQUET MOUNTAIN

New for the 2011 summer is Bousquet's Adventure/Canopy Park open daily 10am-6pm. The Adventure/Canopy Park gives you the same fun and exciting experience of climbing trees and swinging on ropes that you had when you were a kid, but on a far bigger scale and creative environment, and with the backup support of world-class safety equipment. Our guides will lead you on three courses consisting of over 40 rope and timber features, at heights of up to 30 feet above the ground. The two-hour tours of the course will be lead by trained guides and will allow guests to challenge their abilities in balance and agility, on features suited to their experience. The Adventure/Canopy Park at Bousquet adds to the summer destination's already extensive roster of family summer activities, including waterslides, an activity pool, an 18-hole miniature golf course, go-kart track, climbing wall and the 700-foot zipline.

Concord Museum

www.concordmuseum.org

Cambridge Turnpike at Lexington Road, Concord, MA 01742

(978) 369-9763

From Native Americans and Puritans through the 1775 battle at the North Bridge, to the days of Emerson and Thoreau, and on to the present, the Concord Museum brings Concord's past to life. Engaging history galleries pose the question Why Concord? and look at the people, events and ideas which shaped this influential community's development. On exhibit are the lantern that signaled Paul Revere's famous ride, Emerson's entire study and the largest collection of Thoreau's possessions in the world. A film, Exploring Concord, is shown in the museum theatre and "When Duty Whispers: Concord and the Civil War" will be on exhibit through Sept. 18th. Open daily year round. Visit our website or give us a call for hours of operation.
